

Designing a global climate regime without US leadership

---

You are kindly invited to a talk by Robert Keohane, Professor of International Affairs, Princeton University, Woodrow Wilson School of Public and International Affairs
15 November 2017, 16:30 – 18:00, room F-105, Unitobler, Lerchenweg 36, 3012 Bern

---

CLIMATE POLICY RESEARCH – WHERE ARE WE HEADING?

Robert Keohane is the author of several highly renowned books including „After Hegemony: Cooperation and Discord in the World Political Economy“ (1984/2005), „Power and Interdependence“ (1977/2012) with Joseph S. Nye Jr., and „Power and Governance in a Partially Globalized World“ (2002). He is a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and the National Academy of Sciences.

Robert Keohane has been awarded the Balzan Prize 2016 for International Relations: History and Theory. The prize will be presented during an award ceremony in Bern. On this occasion, Robert Keohane will give a talk on global climate policy in times when cooperative approaches are challenged.

The talk is followed by a discussion on the future of climate policy research. Scholars of all disciplines and the general public are invited to join.

---

APERÓ

An apéro will be served after the talk.

---