

TRAPEGO

Transformation of Pesticide Governance

Trapego Webinar Series

Monday October 25th, 2021 16-17h

Ruth Wiedemann, Institute of Political Science, University of Bern

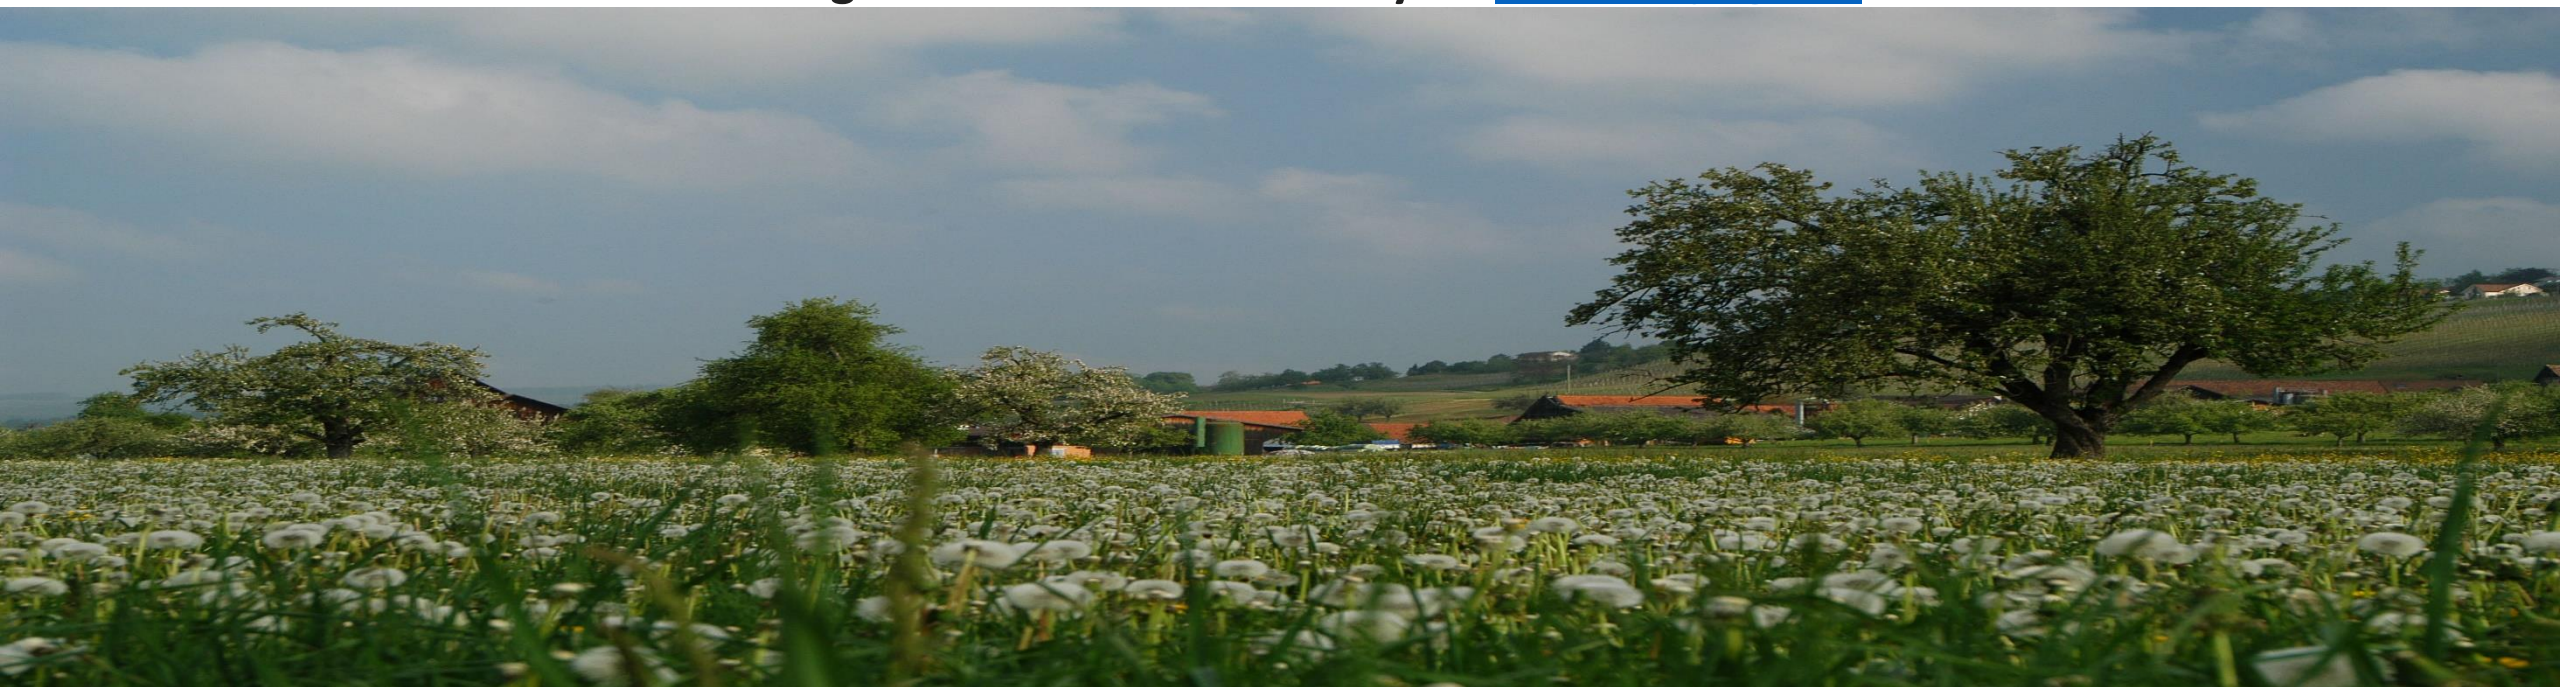

“Participatory knowledge integration to promote safe pesticide use in Uganda”

Philipp Staudacher, Environmental Chemistry, Eawag

“Mystery Shopping among Agro-input Dealers in Uganda”

15' presentations, 30' discussion

→ → → Connect via zoom: login available the same day on www.trapego.ch → → →

This webinar series aims at providing a platform to inter- and trans-disciplinary research interested in pesticide risk reduction and being located at the Food-Environment-Health nexus. For more information about the research project, please consult: www.ipw.unibe.ch/trapego

Next webinars:

Monday, November 15th , 16-17h, Anders Branth Pedersen, Helle Ørsted Nielsen, Aarhus University

“The effects of risk based pesticide taxation in Denmark 2013-2021 – can farmers be motivated to reduce pesticide load through economic incentives?”

Monday, December 13th , 16-17h, Robert Finger, Lucca Zachmann, Chloe McCallum, ETHZ

“Adoption of fungi-resistant grapevine varieties and marketing channels in Switzerland”

Supported by

